City Council Decides To Retain Windrem

Cannot Get Along Very Well Without Him—Labor Council Document Pigeonholed.

The city council met Monday night, all members present except Owens and Penry. Willis was appointed mayor pro tem and called the meeting to order at 9 p. m.

The council had a large amount of business to transact, important among which was the turning down of Richmond Labor Council's request for the resignation of City Attorney Windrem, and the opening of bids for the city printing.

On motion of Councilman Ludwig, bids for city printing were held up for further consideration.

In regard to the city attorney's resignation, as requested by Richmond Labor Council, the city council unanimously voted to file the resolution, and Windrem will continue to serve the city as heretofore, Councilman Hartnett voicing the sentiment of the entire council in endorsing Windrem and his efficient performance of duties pertaining to his office.

A petition for an arc light on Virginia and Eighth was filed.

The telephone company notified the council that the poles in the center of Railroad avenue would soon be removed.

City Architect Ogborn reported 49 building permits, 31 electrical, 27 plumbing. Fees collected $300. Building permits $64,716. Building permits for past 8 months 311, valued at $429,763.

City Auditor McVittie, Chemist Martin and City Treasurer Bonzagni submitted their monthly reports.

The ordinance relating to music machines in places where liquor is sold was laid over one week.

City Engineer Chapman submitted his bond in the sum of $10,000.

The S. P. railroad was requested to install alarm bells at Cutting boulevard crossing.

The Isis motion picture theatre on Macdonald near 11th, which was inspected in regard to fire protection, was again referred to the building committee, more time being asked by the committee.

The council instructed the city engineer to prepare plans and specifications for the opening of Sixteenth street under the tracks of the Oakland branch of the Santa Fe railroad.

The Richmond Dredging Co.'s bill for work on Ashland avenue was placed on file.

Motion by Garrard that J. O. Ford be employed to audit books of city engineer and superintendent of streets, carried.

Motion in regard to removing bootblack stands was referred to building committee.

Motion by McDuff that city attorney be directed to draft ordinance regulating stables, carried.

Claims amounting to $750 were allowed.

City Printing.

Los Angeles and San Jose are successfully operating municipal printing plants, and run them the same as other public utilities, saving thousands of dollars in expense. These cities publish the municipal paper which handles all the city's legal advertising, while the job and bindery departments take care of all the supplies in stationery that is required. The above cities became tired of frame ups and grafting schemes of printers and publishers, and substituted the progressive and up-to-date methods. Where city printing is given out by bids, the "high low bunk" can be "worked to a finish." And if Tom Johnston's "merger" in politics goes through—what then?

Harbor Bonds.

Local capitalists will take the first issue of harbor bonds, which is considered a gilt edge investment. The harbor project will begin in earnest after the rights of way have been obtained, which include the tunnel and highway, wharves and docks.

Harbor Data Has Arrived at Capital

J. R. Knowland Presents Richmond Harbor Data to U. S. War Department.

Special to The Richmond Terminal.

WASHINGTON, D. C., January 10.—Congressman Jos. R. Knowland today presented to the war department the data in the Richmond harbor matter. Additional data had been received from Colonel Rees who, in conjunction with Congressman Knowland, is doing everything possible to facilitate the preliminary work that will eventually give Richmond one of the greatest harbors on the Pacific Coast, if not in the world.

City Briefs.

Snowballs for breakfast. Wow! The Richmond Real Estate Co. is remodeling their office rooms.

Point Richmond Aerie of Eagles installed officers Tuesday night.

Rev. G. A. White has partly recovered from a severe attack of grip.

The Richmond Choral Club meet Monday evenings at the library.

A new hotel will be opened at 23d and Macdonald by Mrs. E. A. Smith.

The Porcelain works will be short of men as 40 more are to be put on.

Joseph Langley has succeeded E. V. Glover as manager of the Richmond theater.

The Santa Fe R. R. distributes over $50,000 per month in Richmond in wages.

Richmond is to have a new garage, with expert machinists and modern equipment.

The Santa Fe district south of the Santa Fe railroad is to have improved mail service.

The Monarch Tailors skipped by the light of the moon. And thereby "hangs a tale."

The big sugar refinery at Crockett is running full blast after a three weeks shut down.

Ludwig will remodel his Central Market near 12th street, plans having been completed.

City Architect Ogborn has issued during the week building permits amounting to more than $50,000.

The fine $7000 home of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Scholz of Vnacio Valley, was destroyed by fire Monday night.

The Modern Woodman of America and Royal Neighbors held a joint installation in Bank Hall Tuesday night.

The Elks building of San Jose covers an area of 150x200 feet. The building is four stories and will soon be completed.

C. H. Schuler, a Santa Fe engineer, died at a sanitarium in San Francisco Tuesday. The remains were shipped to Michigan.

The Santa Fe railroad has raised the pay schedule 2 cents an hour for mechanics and apprentices on the western lines of its system.

Ludwig's new creamery is now turning out butter for everybody, and is one of the best equipped establishments of its kind in the state.

Judge Lindsey has raised the speed fine for motorcyclists from $10 to $20. The judge is keeping right up to the times in regard to the "high cost of living."

Notice has been issued by City Engineer Chapman that assessments for the opening of Third street are due and payable at his office. They become delinquent February 7.

Mrs. William Pinkerton has been appointed to take charge of the Winehaven postoffice, which has been made a sub station of the Richmond office by the postal department.

Many members of Burke Council Young Men's Institute of Richmond attended the district initiation in Oakland last Sunday. Grand officers from all parts of the state were in attendance.

Berkeley Democrat Elected Speaker

C. C. Young, a Progressive, Given the Honor by a Vote of 56 to 24.

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 6.—The fortieth legislature of the state convened here today after a whirlwind of political activity for the speakership of the lower house. Assemblyman C. C. Young of Berkeley, was elected to the speakership of the assembly Monday over J. W. Stuckenbruck, democratic candidate, of Acampo. D. Johnson, of Los Angeles, was elected speaker pro tem. L. B. Mallory is the chief clerk and Tom Walker is his assistant. Ed Reese is the assembly sergeant-at-arms, L. F. Harper is minute clerk, and Rev. Frank Baker is chaplain.

The senate convened at 12:24 p. m. A. E. Boynton was elected temporary president; Walter N. Paris, of Stockton was re-elected chief clerk. J. L. Coughlin is sergeant at arms, and Rev. Dent Naylor of Hayward, is chaplain.

W. A. Sutherland of Fresno, Stanley Benedict of Los Angeles, and L. D. Bohnett of San Jose, were active in the race with Young and it was after their private conference that they concluded to withdraw by mutual agreement, wishing to promote harmony among the progressives.

Holiday Wedding.

One of the surprises sprung by Dan Cupid was the holiday wedding of one of Contra Costa county's popular officers. This was no other than the marriage of Miss Irene Morford to County Recorder M. H. Hurley. The wedding was performed at the home of the groom's mother, Mrs. F. A. Shaw, in Martinez. The bride is a graduate of the local high school and one of Martinez' most popular young ladies. Mr. Hurley is an old time type, and still carries credentials that give him a high standing among the "art preservatives." The Terminal extends congratulations.

Salary Is Low.

Judge W. F. Huber of Stege, may petition the Superior court to have his salary raised as justice of peace from $40 to $100, the latter being the uniform scale for Richmond township. Huber claims that Stege township has a population of 2500 and that he is entitled to the same consideration as Richmond township justices.

Party Lines.

Assemblyman Tom Johnston will introduce an amendment to the primary law eliminating party lines from county and city elections. This bill may not meet with favor, but Tom is right in the abolishment of the game and fish commission and in giving authority to the local boards of supervisors.

License Revoked.

The board of supervisors revoked the license of the Panama-Pacific saloon operated by M. O'Reilly on San Pablo avenue opposite the Richmond Annex addition. A recent shooting scrape in the saloon caused the board to take action. Sheriff Veale promptly closed the place.

New Market.

A new meat market will be opened soon at 22d and Macdonald avenue, by the well known meat market man, O. R. Ludwig. This market will be a great convenience to eastsiders and will be in line for the Pullman trade and all that section of the city east of the subway.

Commission Nominated.

The nominations for commissioners of Richmond's new water districts are: West side, J. B. Willis; central east side district, H. E. Wyatt; Santa Fe district, R. H. Curry; east of S. P. and country district, D. A. Knowles; annexed territory to county line, J. W. Douglas. D. A. Knowles will ask the board of supervisors to fix the date of election for November 27.

More Banks For Growing Richmond

Local Financial Institutions Make Good Showing—Room For More.

Richmond has three banks, not very many for a city of 15,000 population. Towns of much smaller population in California have as many as four and five banks, especially the thriving cities in the southern part of the state. However, the fast increasing business of the banks of Richmond has attracted attention from capital, locally and abroad, and from present indications Richmond will have at least two new banks inside a year. The total assets of Richmond's three banks, according to the last quarterly statement, was $1,662,000. The total deposits of the three banks is estimated at over one million dollars. The amount of business of these banks has increased 200 per cent the past year. This shows the wonderful growth of Richmond and that the prosperous and sound condition of the city's banks is a sure sign of the permanency of Richmond's institutions.

Install Officers.

Court Standard, Foresters of America, regularly installed their new officers at a meeting held in A. O. U. W. hall Wednesday evening. State officers and members from two Alameda lodges were present. A committee of three was named to boost for the holding of the 1914 state convention of the order in Richmond.

Get Your "Number."

The big telephone directory for the bay cities will be printed on January 31. If you are having number troubles, you have until January 25 to make corrections for the big directory.

Twelve Big Tanks.

The Standard Oil Co. is adding to its storage facilities by setting up twelve 55,000 barrel capacity oil tanks on the marsh land and hills to the northeast of the refinery. The tanks are manufactured at the local boiler shops of the Standard. A large crew is employed on the work.

In the Shadow.

The death of Mrs. Eva Scott, wife of Robert L. Scott, last Monday, leaves motherless eight children. Mrs. Scott was 38 years of age, and death followed soon after the birth of her ninth child. Interment was made in Sunset View cemetery, Clark's Undertaking Co. having charge of the funeral obsequies.

Salt Company Wins Suit.

In the long pending suit of the New Liverpool Salt Co. vs. The California Development Co., the latter controlling the entire irrigation system of the Imperial Valley, judgment was rendered the salt company in the sum of $600,000. The decision will cause the sale of the great irrigation system by the Southern Pacific Co. and the ranchers of the Imperial Valley will no doubt purchase the entire plant and rebuild it. The decision was rendered by Judge Bordwell of the Superior court in Los Angeles.

County Coin.

County Auditor Sullenger submitted to the board of supervisors the apportionment of county funds received from the first installment of taxes for 1912-13, as follows:

General fund, 121,160.81; school, $68,948.92; hospital, $23,775.51; salary, $58,117.83; road, $58,127.96; state, $11,623.56; interest and sinking, $3962.58; fire tax, $760.38; Richmond high school, $15,859.39; Richmond grammar (bonds), $13,096.

Something Worth the Price.

The Terminal is offering a premium with a year's subscription ($2.00 in advance) that beats them all. It is a beautifully dressed and expensive doll for your little girl, alone worth the subscription price. Or, you can choose a razor-steel pocket knife, elegantly finished, inlaid handle, with your photo, name and address artistically inserted. Call at 618 Macdonald and see sample. You will take one, sure.

Railway Magnate to Conduct Key Interests

Smith to Have Personal Supervision of Great System of Electric Railways.

NEW YORK, January 10.—(Special Correspondence)—It is an assured fact that the California magnate, "Borax" Smith, who is building up a powerful railway system in California, will personally take charge of the fast growing network of railways that are grid-ironing central California. Smith has sold his fine yacht to Clara Baldwin who inherited ten millions of the "Lucky" Baldwin estate.

Mr. Smith, who is at the head of the Realty Syndicate, and famous as the "Borax King," will assume active management of his Oakland properties, which include the great waterfront projects known as the Key Route Basin and the six-track pier, the latter the terminus of the big artery that spreads after leaving the bay shore with electric lines that penetrate every section of California.

Mr. Smith will direct his energies in the development of the San Joaquin and Sacramento valleys with electric lines now in the course of construction. This development will give interior territory direct connection with tidewater, especially in the case of the Antioch & Oakland railway, which is building into Sacramento, thence on to Willows and Red Bluff, tapping the fertile west side of the Sacramento valley.

Cold Wave Causes Loss.

The cold wave that swept California the fore part of the week did inestimable damage to the orange crop, running into millions of dollars. The coast towns all suffered from loss, especially along the southern California coast.

Their Own Water Supply.

Burg Bros. announce that they will have an abundant supply of water for the civic center territory east of 23d street and Macdonald avenue. The recent signing of a contract with the Union Water Co. assures this section of Richmond an abundant supply. The Union Water Co. have begun drilling a well near the proposed civic center and have reserved sufficient land to put down more wells should they be required.

Parcels Post.

Postmaster Jenkins does not anticipate a great volume of business in the package department. The postoffice force is equal to the task of handling all the parcels offered, and the overdrawn and much ridiculed carrier carrying cook stoves, horses, mules, etc., exists only in the dazed imagination of the cartoonist. Uncle Sam will get away with all the parcels post business with ease.

Happy Hogan's Team.

Happy Hogan, manager of the Vernon baseball team which came near winning the Coast League pennant, has made up his roster of players for the coming season, his selections covering the entire United States. From Imperial Valley to Boston Happy's sharp eye located talent. With two or three more twirlers, Hogan will have a squad of players that may bring the flag home to Vernon.

Down 182 Feet.

Richmond Elks are not worrying about the water supply, whether the People's, Spring Valley, or Hetch-Hetchy make good. The Elks well drillers stopped at 182 feet, having struck a good flow of pure water, more than enough to supply the building in all its departments.

The Color Is Red.

The new parcels post stamps are of a red color and are about the size of the old Columbian stamps. This design as well as the color of the new stamp is the same on all, the only difference being the printed denomination and the central figure. The new Panama Pacific stamp was placed on sale in all the bay city offices January 1.

WILSON HAS NOT YET OFFERED SINGLE PORTFOLIO

Princeton, N. J., Jan. 6.—President-elect Wilson last night made it clear that nobody in the United States knew, as yet, who was going to be in his cabinet, or what would be the program he would suggest for the next congress. He declared that he had not offered a single cabinet portfolio to any one thus far, and as yet had reached no conclusions as to plans for the extra session.

BAILEY ASSAILS 'NEW NATIONALISM'

Texas Senator Bids Farewell to Colleagues in Remark- able Speech

Direct Legislation Is Branded as the Creation of Cowardly Politicians

Washington—In a great oratorical effort which had even those opposed to him spellbound, Senator Bailey of Texas bade farewell to the senate.

His keynote was a defense of the system of government founded by the fathers. He bitterly arraigned "new nationalism" and drew voluminously from history and judicial decisions to prove that direct legislation was not compatible with a representative democracy. As one of his authorities he cited President-elect Woodrow Wilson's writings to show that the initiative and referendum must fail because they did not afford the opportunity for "exchange of views" and "community of thought" given in a legislative body. Bailey blamed the newspapers for the disrespect into which the senate has fallen. The publication of lists of millionaires in the senate and the allusions to the upper house of congress as a "millionaires' club" had, he said, created the impression that the only qualification for the senate was a pocket-book.

Bailey declared that the founders of the republic deliberately discarded a direct democracy, in which the people would rule without the intervention of representatives, and adopted a representative democracy in which the people should rule through their duly appointed agents. This, he declared, was the only system which history has demonstrated to be workable.

The initiative and referendum originated through questions which politicians were afraid to decide, and evaded the issues by devising the plan to submit the questions directly to the people. The removal of capitals and county seats and the prohibition question led to the use of direct legislation, he declared, the procedure having its origin in political cowardice rather than in a spirit of progress.

Within a day or two Bailey's resignation will be laid before the senate and communicated to Governor Colquitt of Texas, his expectation being that R. M. Johnston of Houston will be named to fill out his term, which would end March 4.

An attack upon William R. Hearst in the course of his speech, in which he characterized Hearst as a "miserable dog" who had "hounded him," brought Senator Ashurst of Arizona to his feet. He attempted to answer this phase of Bailey's attack upon radical newspapers and magazines, but was stopped by the Texas senator with the remark that he "could make that reply outside." Later Ashurst took the floor in his own right and, in the course of his defense of direct government, he paid a tribute to Hearst as a loyal American citizen.

Galleries were crowded to their utmost capacity and long lines of people waited in the corridors for an opportunity to hear the Texan's farewell address. To the membership of the senate was added nearly seventy-five members of the house, who filled the benches and lined the walls along the floor of the chamber. Senator Bailey spoke for four hours. Throughout that time he received the closest attention from members and spectators. As he concluded a wave of applause swept through the galleries, bringing a sharp reprimand from Senator Gallinger, the presiding officer.

SERFDOM IN RUSSIA FINALLY ABOLISHED

St. Petersburg—The council of the empire has adopted a law abolishing the last vestiges of serfdom in Russia. When the rescript of emancipation was issued in 1861 the Caucasus was excepted from its provisions on account of special conditions there and temporary transitional measures were instituted pending the adoption of the most suitable method for giving the serfs their freedom.

This transitional stage, after half a century, has been terminated, though there still was opposition to its abolition. Premier Kokovsov personally appeared before the council of the empire to urge the adoption of the new law. It already had passed the duma.

Bailey Sends Resignation

Washington—Senator Joseph W. Bailey has sent his resignation as senator from Texas to Senator Gallinger, to take effect immediately. R. M. Johnston of Houston is now in the city and Senator Bailey said that he would be appointed by the governor to succeed him, with the expectation that the legislature when it meets would elect him to fill out the unexpired term.

Coal Found in Shasta County

Redding—Coal has been struck in Shasta county. The Northern California Power company is running a six-mile tunnel in the big bend of the Pitt in connection with a power development project. The tunnel at a distance of 270 feet from the surface has cut a vein of coal eight inches thick and uncovered the ledge for a distance of twenty-two feet. The coal is of excellent quality.

STATE LEGISLATURE MEETS AND ORGANIZES

C. C. Young to Preside Over Deliberations of the House—A. E. Boynton for President of Senate

Sacramento, Jan. 6.—The state legislature met today in biennial session and after organization listened to the reading of Governor Johnson's message, which was in the nature of a review of the past two years and an outline of what he considers the needs of the state for the next two years.

Lieutenant Governor A. J. Wallace called together the upper house of the California legislature in its fortieth session today just before 11 o'clock, and three and one-half hours later it adjourned for the day out of respect to the memory of former Senator E. O. Miller of Visalia, who died during the year. The Republican members of the senate went into caucus and selected

Governor Johnson's Message in Brief

Governor Johnson's recommendations to the legislature, which are contained in his biennial message, epitomized are as follows:

- State industrial accident insurance.
- Kansas "blue sky" law.
- Water conservation and water power bills yet to be presented by state commissions.
- Free state labor bureau.
- Taxing of automobiles for upkeep of state highways.
- Increase of taxes on gross revenue of great corporations and decrease of taxes for small householders.
- Abolishment of boards of trustees for state hospitals and asylums and establishment of a centralized governing body similar to board of control.
- Centralized control of normal schools

Convicted Labor Leaders May Give Bail Pending Appeal

Chicago—A writ of supersedeas staying execution of the sentences imposed upon the dynamite conspirators, recently convicted at Indianapolis, has been issued by the United States circuit court of appeals here. Bail was based on the number of years which the prisoners have been sentenced to serve—$10,000 for each year.

Thus Ryan's bail was fixed at $70,000, or $10,000 for each of the seven years of his sentence. Those who received sentences of six years must furnish $60,000, four years $40,000, and so on down to $10,000 for the one year sentences.

Defense lawyers stated that money enough to admit all to bail would be forthcoming. Judge Baker, who delivered the opinion of court, stated that Judge Anderson, before whom the alleged conspirators were tried, would be authorized to pass on any bonds offered.

Government Holds Up Patents For Vast Area

Washington—By the joint action of the war, interior and agricultural departments, extensive land patents of the international Power and Manufacturing company of the state of Washington have been held up because of the belief of Secretary Fisher, as expressed in a statement, that the company was trying to "free itself from all control by the government by securing patents to lands under the guise of mining claims or by railroad scrip filings in combination with a special dam license."

The company was planning to build a series of power plants which it was estimated would produce 200,000 horsepower, having a value of $5,000,000 to $8,000,000 a year. The power site is in the so-called "Z" canyon of the Pend d'Oreille river, situated partly in the Knapiku national forest and partly in a power site reserve set aside by President Taft.

Secretary Fisher's statement charges that "many so-called mining claims have been located along the river in the national forest and within the power site reserve," and that "no attempt seems to have been made to press the mining claims for patent, the company apparently relying solely upon the special act licensing the dam. Plans filed with the war department show that the company would use the public lands in the national forest for flowage and public lands in the power site reserve for the same purpose and for conduits and power house."

MICHIGAN VOTERS TO PASS ON AMENDMENTS

Lansing, Mich.—The submission to Michigan voters of constitutional amendments providing initiative and referendum laws and the recall of executive, legislative and administrative officials was urged by Governor Woodbridge N. Ferris in his inaugural address. The chief executive also urged the adoption of a shorter ballot, the Oregon system of campaign publicity, the election of senators by popular vote and declared his hearty approval of equal suffrage. Retiring Governor Chase S. Osborn reviewed state conditions and urged progressive laws.

EXPEDITION TO EXPLORE THE UPPER AMAZON

New York—An expedition to explore the upper waters of the Amazon and the regions inhabited by the cannibals in the foothills of the Andes, started last week with the departure of Algt. Lange, a young American explorer, and Admiral Jose Carvalho, of the Brazilian navy, for Para, where they

Pressure of the Powers Used Both at London and Constantinople

Turkey Will Prepare Fresh Con- cessions While Allies Are Ex- pected to Yield Some

London, Jan. 6.—The danger of a rupture today of peace negotiations seems to have been averted by the probability that Turkey will make fresh concessions which will allow the allies to enjoy a holiday during the festivities in connection with the Christmas celebration of the orthodox church. From authoritative sources it is stated that the powers, through their ambassadors here and at Constantinople, have exerted strong pressure at Constantinople in favor of moderation, while the Balkan representatives have been urged to be patient before breaking off negotiations, especially as they can lose nothing by waiting, their position being stronger than that of Turkey.

The efforts of the powers appear to have been successful on both sides. Thus, unless some sudden change develops at the last moment, Rechad Pasha will present new terms, which will comprise another rectification of the Thracian frontier, bringing it further east, perhaps to Dedegalch, but not yet including Adrianople, and possibly the cession of Turkey's rights in Crete directly to the allies.

After representations had been made to them, Dr. Danef, Premier Venizelos, M. Novakovich and M. Mijuskovitch met yesterday and decided to give Turkey a further period of grace, taking the ground that the submission of the new terms will be proof of a disposition on the part of Turkey to reach a satisfactory solution. They propose to submit the new terms to their governments for study and await further instructions, and will suggest an adjournment of the conference probably until Friday, the third day after their Christmas, at the same time emphasizing the absolute necessity of Turkey meeting the terms of the allies, particularly with respect to Adrianople.

The impression is that Turkey will end by ceding Adrianople, and that it will be done without any serious results, such as are predicted by Turkish sympathizers, or threatened by Constantinople. Whenever Turkey is about to suffer territorial amputation the specter of Mussulman fanaticism is raised and assistance is sought from Great Britain and France, which have in their domains millions of Mussulmans, who are pictured as being ready to rise in sympathy. The Turkish empire, however, gradually has been dismembered without the Mussulman dragon ever awakening, either at home or abroad, and experts in Turkish affairs interpret this to mean that the Mussulmans themselves are convinced that they fare better under their present rulers.

INDEPENDENT TRIBUNAL BY TAFT FOR CANAL DISPUTE

Washington, Jan. 6.—President Taft is willing to submit to arbitration the questions at issue between Great Britain and the United States over Panama canal tolls, but he does not favor arbitration by the Hague tribunal. This fact became known here tonight upon the president's return from New York. Although he has not given the matter of a tribunal much thought, the president probably would prefer a special board of arbitration composed of an equal number of citizens of the United States and Great Britain. Such was to be the composition of the arbitral court he proposed when he spoke in behalf of the arbitration treaties. The president has expressed to friends the view that at the Hague all Europe would be against this nation, and that the moral pressure on the court would be enormous because all Europe is interested in Panama. In a court on which only Great Britain and the United States were represented, it is argued, there would be a much greater chance of a fair decision. Several Democratic senators have voiced the opinion that a special tribunal should be created to arbitrate this dispute.

CALIFORNIA LEADS IN GOLD OUTPUT FOR YEAR

Washington—The world's production of gold during 1912 was $5,500,000 greater than in 1911, the total having been $465,000,000, according to a preliminary estimate announced by George E. Roberts, director of the mint. Gold production in the United States amounted to $91,685,168, compared with $96,890,000 in 1911. California led with $19,988,486; Colorado was second with $18,791,710; Alaska third with $17,398,946; Nevada fourth with $13,331,680 and South Dakota fifth with $7,795,680.

Life's Best Thing

The only real valuable thing in the world is character. Every organization of any kind, bank, corporation, municipality, church, government, or society, is on the lookout for character. If you have it, you need not fear that you will be overlooked, for the search is too sharp for character to be concealed itself.—Admiral T. E. Chadwick in January St. Nicholas.

The beautiful snow!

Who owns the Panama canal?

The 40th session of the California legislature convened Monday.

If you are afflicted with grouch, read the 12th chapter of Hebrews.

And the joke is on Southern California. They got more of the "beautiful" than we did.

The man who would see his city's interests suffer in order to gain a point against a political opponent, is not a loyal citizen.

It is now proposed to reorganize the state board of education, making Supt. Hyatt's job an appointive one. To do this would require a constitutional amendment.

Taft and Roosevelt were once "side parts." How different now. At the Reid funeral obsequies they sat within a few feet of each other, yet there was no friendly recognition—nothing but "ice."

The commission form of government went into effect in Stockton last Monday. Two of the commissioners serve four years and two serve two years. The meetings of the commission will be held in day-time.

Richmond cannot be made a city beautiful in a year nor in a month, but why hibernate for so long in regard to the subway? Residents and property owners in that section of the city should have relief from this makeshift.

With seven new professors, all men of national eminence, to head the departments of agriculture in the University of California, there is a remarkable opportunity for young men and women to fit themselves for the varied pursuits founded on agricultural science.

The big Claremont hotel, at a cost of more than two millions, is up against the booze problem. The state law prohibits the sale of liquor within one mile of the university grounds. Recent surveys show that part of the hotel is in Oakland and part in Berkeley and that the building is also within the mile limit. The millionaire guests will insist on having their liquid refreshments, notwithstanding Berkeley is a dry (?) town.

The women's improvement organizations of the bay cities are accomplishing a great work. They are beautifying the cities, and by their right of franchise will give the people, it is to be hoped, clean, progressive administrations. Richmond women are especially active along progressive lines, and the men are more than willing to assist them at the coming election to raise the standard of ideals which count for civic and moral improvement.

What's the matter with the black fox industry? Think of receiving from $8000 to $25,000 for an ordinary black fox. Nearly every farmer on Prince Edward Island is breeding and selling black fox to European nabobs and cannot supply the demand. Many farmers of the Canadian island are millionaires. Rather foxy way to get the coin, but it beats raising alfalfa, cotton, dairying or mining. The black fox industry in Canada discounts California's mining industry.

Last Sunday was the coldest day California has ever experienced, so say the pioneers. The north wind blew a terrific gale and small lakes and ponds were frozen over, reminding one of the real article of winter of the middle states brand. In Los Angeles it was so cold and windy that the crop of eastern tourists crowded the northbound trains to their capacity. At San Jose it was so cold that outdoor recreation was almost entirely dispensed with. Pieces of ice were on exhibition in Richmond frozen on Macdonald avenue one inch in thickness. To top off with, Old Borealis treated us to a real snowstorm, the foot hills resembling the white capped Sierras. Perhaps that "warm Japan current" is taking a holiday vacation.

ANTI-TREAT LAW GOOD ONE.

At least 75 per cent of drunkenness is due to the treating habit. Why should a man be so conscientious and afraid that his neighbor will call him a "tightwad"? Iowa has reduced drunkenness to a minimum by the rigid enforcement of the anti treat law. The Hawkeye state has tried out all kinds of prohibition since 1883, and the anti-treat ordinance has proved the big success. In treating one takes a drink he does not want in order to buy another man a drink which he probably doesn't want, and then drinking another drink which you want still less in order to give him the opportunity of showing his "generosity." This is only a prelude to the number of treats that follow, when several acquaintances come in and more rounds of drinks are called in rotation until all have treated. Then the barkeeper "sets 'em up." When all are served, more convivia arrive, and the endless chain continues merrily on. Iowa's prohibition law, the anti-treat proposition because it keeps their places of business clear of hangers on and increases the cash register receipts.

THE CURESTONER.

The real estate man who is known by the euphonious synonym of "curestoner" is now on the slab for "contempt," and efforts will be made by organized brokers to compel the curestoner to hang out his shingle and do business in a more dignified and "professional" style by having headquarters and something material to prove that he is really sincere. In brief, it is required of the curestoner that he join the "union," take out a working card and do business in a business way. The relief sought by legitimate brokers is restriction in numbers, and an opportunity to weed out the "novices and bad actors." It is claimed by some of the dealers that the competition of curbers is ruinous; that they should be taxed, and should qualify as to competency and integrity. The dealers claim that the selling of real estate is a "profession," and restrictions should be placed on "curbing" by the levying of a state license.
